AFTERWORD

Even though I was given two pages for the afterword, I have no idea what to draw anymore. This is bad.

This is my first comic with Lynx Collection.

Hehe, my name is Ueda.

I started drawing randomly and it came out all weird.

I have drawing about high school and university students. Students are the best.

I'm still researching about adults (Especially solenymen).

There's no such thing as a character for nothing.

To be honest, I find it difficult to ink properly, so I thought it might be easier if I used a ballpoint pen. But then I actually did it. I made sure to use a proper dip pen.

That reminds me, I used a different type of pen to ink the first part of 'The Last Child.' I wonder if the art came out different. If it has troubled any of the readers, I humbly apologize.

I hope
we'll
meet
again
soon.

I'm
grateful
if you
have enjoyed
it even if just a little.

Thank
you very much for
buying
this book.

+ doodles

Because I noticed that Mitsuya-kun has piercings on the cover but not in the main story

Mitsuya-kun's being unfair.

Kiyotaka

Someone that has made real
decisions based on
his feelings

People who can study.

Has social anxiety which follows him till
adulthood.

Saitou

Kagetsuna

Seems to enjoy the
atmosphere

Working hard to bridge the gap
gap between's
himself and his

Shouta

Takuma

Very
understanding
has special
power

People
with
Crazy
power

What's Crazy
power?

Ryo

It's hard to tell
if he is good or
bad at his studies

It's hard not to calculate his
moves

Arisugawa

People who can't study.

It's funny how the people at the top portion of the graph all have black hair plus they're all males.

Kagetsuna has, isn't gay but since he appeared in the story a lot I decided to add him in.

A curious
high-schooler and
a socially inept
adult. Please take care of us!
